D O No 490

My dear Mr Ramaswamaiya

Your D O No 7151/Edn 265-12-2 of the 10th instant The Educational Museum is in the Sheshadri Memorial Hall and the Educational Library is in the Inspector General's office Till a separate building for the Educational Library or for the matter of that for a Public Library can be had somewhere by the side of the new High School Building and a good Librarian on liberal pay is appointed it is not easy to tack on the Museum to the Library The idea has been in my mind for

for sometime past, but for want of a suitable building, I did not propose the combination Even when the Library and the Museum are placed in one building, Mr Narayana Rao may continue as Honorary Superintendent He is now engaged in preparing a catalogue of the books of the Educational Library, with such help as I can give him My proposal may therefore be kindly sanctioned

Yours sincerely,

GRS 28]
